This internal inspection review process has been established to allow an applicant or permit holder the ability to appeal an inspector's or reviewer's decision. This process will document the review of the inspector's inspection or decision by the supervisor of the inspector. This review will be conducted by either the field supervisor, Chief Building Inspector, Chief Fire Official or Fire Marshal, depending on the nature and location of the appeal. This appeal must be started within 10 working days of the inspector's decision and before the work or component has been covered.

This internal review process is required by North Carolina General Statutes 153A-352(f) or 160A-412(f). This form can be found under "Forms & Documents" on Cabarrus County's Construction Standards website (<https://www.cabarruscounty.us/departments/construction-standards>). The Inspection Appeal Request form has been established for your convenience and will be assigned to the appropriate supervisor after it has been submitted. Please allow 10-15 working days for a response.

Thank you for your interest in the Inspection Appeal Request form.
