- I. Approval of Minutes: Two corrections to the minutes of June 4, 2018 were addressed;
 - a. Jitendra Hiremath – Remove listed tenure.
 - b. Toni Wheeler Jenschke - Sir name was misspelled. Above revision made.
 - c. Micah Cash made a motion to approve the minutes, inclusive of corrections. Penny Vaughn second the motion. Minutes approved at 6:25pm.

- II. Special Presentations:
 - a. Micah Cash handed out informative material useful to the committee.

- III. Old Business:

Note: Gentle reminder by Penny Vaughn to follow the agenda to ensure accuracy of the minutes.

 - a. Farmers Market - Marc Brun started the conversation by sharing concern at the lack of enthusiasm the community and vendors alike have toward the market. Would like to see more patronage, dedicated vendors, maybe local artwork displayed and events including live music. Lengthy discussion about the various ways within the circle of social media & the towns website to get the word out. Daniel Stines to share the link for those with community websites. Troy Selberg will reach out to people who can be helpful with ideas. Discussion tabled until next month.
 - b. ARTwalk - Toni Wheeler Jenschke shared her reservations of putting together an event this size esp. given the short time frame. Under the guidance of Shawn Marble, Toni Wheeler Jenschke can begin planning the event and build the ARTwalk Sub-Committee. Further updates to follow.

1. 2019 ARTwalk - Consideration of a Spring event for crafters and a Fall event for Art. Micah Cash slated August 2018 to meet with Toni Wheeler Jenschke.

c. Harrisburg History / Preservation / Heritage Initiatives:

Once we design our blueprint, the next step would be to meet Ed McCachren who has vast knowledge of the history of The Town of Harrisburg.

d. Multi-Cultural Festival / Celebration Logistics -

Jitendra Hiremath shared his ideas of having booths for different countries each sharing their culture of food, music, dance, art, language and colors, as well as those with special needs.

The Town calendar for this Fall / Winter has a full schedule of events. Talks for planning the event for 3rd quarter of 2019 was tabled until next month by Troy Selberg.

Penny Vaughn made a motion to officially name the new Multi - Cultural festival the "Harrisburg Multi-Cultural Festival. Marc Brun second the motion. Further discussions tabled by Micah Cash until month.

e. 501 © discussion was tabled till further down the road.

f. Fundraising Sub-Committee – The ARTwalk is the main fundraiser for the committee. Future event(s) tabled.

IV. New Business:

Continuation of discussions of Fall 2018 and Spring 2019 events and Sub-Committee.

V. Events:

- A. Rockin' the Burg featuring, The Catalinas. (Saturday August 11, 6:30 – 9pm)
