CONSENT AGENDA

- Approval of Minutes from August 26, 2013 Parks and Recreation Advisory Board Meeting.

OLD BUSINESS

- Update on the Greenway
  - The board members are still working to get the different sections of the application complete.

NEW BUSINESS

- Manager Update
  - Luke Tucker presented his Eagle Scout project with the board. The project will be at Pharr Mill Rd Park and address the drainage issues, specifically near the playground. A French Drain system will be installed and additional trees will be planted. The plan is to move water runoff in to the wooded area of the park. Funds are expected to come from donations, including corporate donors.
- Events Update
  - Market on Main is planned for 9/28 from 10-2 at Veterans Park. There will be a Halloween Festival on 10/25 at Stallings Rd Park.
- Program Update
  - Zumba is going well. No other new programs at this time.
- Athletics Update
  - The fall season is at its midpoint and is very busy.
  - There are 160 teams with 2,000 participants.
  - Basketball signups started on 9/23 and go through October.
    - 7-8 year-olds have been divided into two divisions, 7 AND 8.
  - There are two cheerleading squads and six football teams.
  - The Cabarrus County grant for dugout covers was won by the town.
- 501C3
  - Bank accounts have been set up.
  - Rules and policies will be set soon.
