- III. New Business
  - a. September 2020 meeting moved to Tuesday, September 8, 2020 at 6 pm to accommodate the Labor Day Holiday and also allow HACH to meet before the Multicultural Festival. This was a unanimous decision by the board members present.
- IV. Events Updates
  - a. Virtual Art Walk Update
    - Shawn, April, and Toni have been brainstorming possibilities for this virtual event and will meet before HACH September meeting to firm up the details of the event.
  - b. Virtual Multicultural Festival Update
    - The MCF has 3 sponsors-YMCA (Silver), KMB realtors (Bronze), and Captain Steve's (Bronze).
    - 29 people representing 13 countries have registered for the event. Videos will be prerecorded by the registrants and made available 9/12 for the public. These videos will include demonstrations, performances, and education.
    - The MCF is also doing theme days on social media to promote the event.
    - Shawn will see if last year's banners can be reused and put the sponsors on the banners. (If they cannot be reused, new ones will be ordered.)

- Jeet has reached out to various schools' choruses and is looking for someone to sing the National Anthem.
- The team of volunteers, both students and adult, continue to be committed to making this event successful.
